The Tracker IV Provides Durability

A rugged design makes the Tracker IV from Bounty Hunter a top choice for beginners and avid treasure hunters. It has the ability to find treasure in extreme conditions from mineralized sites to salty beaches.

As one of the most user-friendly and efficient choices for the price, the TK4 metal detector provides the right tool for most treasure hunters. Don't let the price fool you, it's not some cheap excuse for a metal detector.

Most metal detectors priced under $100 don't provide much more than a little bit of amusement for the user. However, with the Tracker IV Bounty Hunter has made it possible to spend less than $100 and get the right tool for hours of successful treasure hunting.

Ease of Use

The Tracker IV comes with three detection modes to make it very easy to use. The Motion All-Metal mode will detect all types of metal, while the Discrimination mode will eliminate unwanted metals from the search.

Bounty Hunter also designed this metal detector with a very lightweight and ergonomic design for incredible comfort. The design makes it possible for avid treasure hunters to spend hours in search of new items.

Products Features

- Preset ground balance to neutralize mineral content in the soil
- Works in extreme conditions
- Adjustable Height design
- Headphone Jack
- Two-Tone audio feedback
- Five-Year Limited Warranty

Value for Money

Any new or avid treasure hunter will be hard-pressed to find another metal detector packed with so many features for less than $100. The TK4 from Bounty Hunter comes with a padded armrest and a detector stand to add even more value to the package.

Pros

The Tracker IV is the perfect choice for coin shooting, finding jewelry, lost property and other household items. It's light weight making it easy for treasure hunters of all ages to use it.

Since the metal detector is so easy to learn how to use, it's the perfect choice for beginners. The TK4 will also help discriminate between different types of metal so new treasure hunters won't feel like they are wasting their time.

Cons

The Tracker IV from Bounty Hunter doesn't come with a sound control. There is only one level of sound, which can be a bit inconvenient. It can also be a bit difficult to pinpoint the targets if they are deeper than a few inches.

Consumer Reviews

At the time of writing the Gold Digger has 490 customer reviews on Amazon with an average of 4.4 stars and you can read them by clicking here.

Summary

Most metal detectors in the same price range as the Tracker IV are not worth the cost. However, this metal detector from Bounty Hunter provides incredible value perfect for the beginner.

If you're looking to try out treasure hunting or you have a smaller budget for a metal detector, this one will fit perfectly. You may be looking for a higher end device as you fall in love with treasure hunting, but as an entry-level metal detector, the Tracker IV provides plenty of value.

Value and Accuracy from the Sharpshooter II Metal Detector

The avid treasure hunter will enjoy using the Bounty Hunter SS2 metal detector. With the ability to create profit and fun, this metal detector comes packed with necessary features.

It's now possible to use a metal detector to find all types of metal or to simply find specific metals. The Disc Notch mode allows this detector to reject nails and iron, which makes it possible to find more precious metals without so many interruptions.

Another important benefit found from the Ground Trac feature of the Sharpshooter II is the ability to automatically gain balance with any soil condition. As one of the most comprehensive metal detectors for the cost, you simply can't go wrong with the SS2 from Bounty Hunter.

Ease of Use

The easy-to-read LCD makes this one of the most user-friendly metal detectors from Bounty Hunter. Users can be up and running in less than five minutes and the touchpad makes it easy to control the detector.

Advanced users will find the features easy to learn once they have gone through the easy-to-understand online tutorial. This makes the Sharp Shooter II very easy to learn and allows even a beginner to get the most out of this metal detector.

Product Features

- Full LCD Readout
- Lightweight Design
- Visual Reference of every item found
- Provides depth readout and target ID
- Built-in Speaker
- Headphone Jack
- Five-Year limited warranty

Value for Money

The ability to see the item you've found, such as iron, gold, silver or another metal provides plenty of value for the avid collector. No longer do you have to dig for an unwanted item. With the clear LCD screen, it's easy to understand what you have discovered before you start digging.

The lightweight design also adds to the value by allowing avid treasure hunters to hunt longer. Since the design doesn't take as much strength to carry, it's possible to hunt for hours.

Pros

The online tutorial makes the Sharpshooter II an easy metal detector to learn how to use. Along with the tutorial, the lightweight design is also a big plus for older treasure hunters or those with arthritis.

This metal detector will even work in wet, salty sand, such as at the beach. Many others won't work as well with wet sand, but the SS2 performs quite well in these types of conditions.

Cons

Not the best choice if you want to find gold specifically. The SS2 works great for silver, but may report some gold as other types of coins.

Consumer Reviews

At the time of writing the Sharpshooter II has 92 customer reviews on Amazon with an average of 4.3 stars and you can read them by clicking here.

Summary

The Sharpshooter II from Bounty Hunter provides a lightweight, easy-to-use metal detector perfect for all ages. Whether as a gift for a youngster or as an everyday tool for the avid treasure hunter, the value provided makes the SS2 worth every penny.

A True Story of Spunky's Treatment with Dia-IonX

Spunky was 16 years old when her symptoms were first discovered, which included drinking excessive amounts of water on a daily basis. Her energy level had decreased and she even struggled to walk without falling over. After a little online research, Dia-IonX was discovered.

Since there was nothing to lose, Spunky received treatment from Dia-IonX and it only took about a week for the results to show up. She was back to her normal jumping around and her blood sugar levels returned to normal quickly.

Dia-IonX saved Spunky's life. You can read the full story about Spunky and how this miracle product extended her life, by Going Here Now.

Why Dia-IonX is the Best Treatment for Pet Diabetes

Dia-IonX can be used for both cats and dogs for the treatment of pet diabetes. It's a 100% natural treatment and doesn't include the high cost of insulin for the vet. Just going through the daily process of testing blood sugar levels and giving your pet insulin can wear them out. It's rough on both the pet and the owner.

Dia-IonX doesn't require the daily routine of poking your cat to give him/her insulin and drawing blood from their ear to test the blood sugar levels. You can easily administer the treatment by adding it to your pet's water or you can give it to them directly in their mouth with a pet syringe. The process is very easy and you won't have to poke a needle into your precious animal ever again.

If you've been searching for the answer to your pet's diabetes issue, Dia-IonX from VETiONX is the right choice for treatment.

Now that you know you have a BETTER option for treating pet diabetes, it's time to take action!

Take advantage of the Buy 3, Get 2 Deal Today or just get one bottle to try. It's backed by a 60-Day Satisfaction Guarantee and in most cases starts working with Just One Week!
