

Contractor/Remodeling Samples

Bathroom Remodeling

The House Next Door provides a professional remodeling team to ensure your bathroom remodeling project is completed to the highest of standards. Our team provides amazing quality and guarantees your satisfaction.

If you've been thinking about creating a new look in your bathroom, we are ready to help. Our experts will guide you through the process of choosing a design or taking your idea and bringing it to life. Our project managers will work with you throughout every step of the project to ensure you know what is happening next.

When you decide to trust The House Next Door with your bathroom remodeling job, you can rest easy knowing you're trusting highly skilled craftsmen. We only use the best for each step of the process from plumbers to cabinet designers. Our team of experts will ensure you get the bathroom of your dreams.

If it's time to overhaul your bathroom and turn it into the sanctuary you've been dreaming of, contact The House Next Door for your free quote.

New Construction

The House Next Door provides many different new construction services from room additions to porch building. Whether you just want to add a deck or your family has expanded and you need a new bedroom, we can help.

Our team of experts serves the greater Los Angeles area with the highest quality workmanship and customer service. We will help you turn your home into the home you've always wanted with our new construction services. Some of the services we offer include:

- Room additions
- Porch building
- Patio design and construction
- Deck building
- Addition of Bonus rooms
- Garage construction
- And More!

No matter your needs, we are here to help you get the home you've always wanted. Even if you're not sure which renovation project is best for you, one of our experts can help you make the right decision. Our team will walk you through the entire process, so that you know exactly what to expect once the project starts.

Bring your designs to life or choose from some of our designs for your new construction project. If it's time to add a room, porch, garage or any other addition to your home, contact The House Next Door today and receive a free, no obligation estimate.
